Sum Assured, £ 100

Whereas, William Frederick Parker of Cambridge, in the County of Cambridge, Broker and Farmer

hereinafter called the Assured, has proposed to effect an Assurance with the ERA ASSURANCE SOCIETY in the Sum of One Hundred Pounds upon and for the whole continuance of the Life of Himself

And Whereas The said Assured has paid to the said Society the sum of Two Pounds fifteen shillings and two pence as a Premium or consideration for this Assurance for one year until the eleventh Day of March, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Fifty seven

Now this Policy Witnesseth, That if the said Assured

March shall die before or upon the eleventh Day of March in the Year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Fifty seven, or if he shall live beyond that day, and the said Assured, or his Assigns, or the holder of this Policy who shall be registered as such in the Book hereinafter mentioned of the said Society, shall on or before that Day, and on or before the eleventh day of March in each and every succeeding year, during the continuance of this Assurance, pay to the said Society the Premium of Two Pounds fifteen shillings and two pence then the Funds and other Property of the said Society shall, according to the provisions of the Deed of Settlement of the Society, be subject and liable to pay to the said Assured Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, of the said Assured or to the holder of this Policy, who shall be registered as aforesaid, immediately after satisfactory proof of the Death of the said Assured

Provided always, That the Secretary of the said Society shall, upon request of the holder of this Policy, and with the consent of the said Assured, register such holder in a book to be called "The Register of Holders of Policies."

Provided also, That the payment as above-mentioned of the said sum of One Hundred Pounds to the holder of this Policy, who shall be registered as aforesaid, shall be a good and sufficient discharge to the said Society from and against any claims or demands upon or in respect of this Policy.

Provided also, and these presents are upon this condition, that in case the Person upon whose Life this Assurance is effected (or if all, any, or either of such Persons, if there be more than one) shall in time of peace go beyond the limits of Europe, or in time of war shall go on the high seas, or out of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or being or becoming a Military or Naval Man, shall enter into actual service, written notice of every such event shall be forthwith given to the Board of Directors of the said Society, and such additional Premium or Premiums shall be payable, and from time to time be paid, to the said Society in respect thereof, as the Board of Directors shall deem reasonable, and shall award and direct to be paid.

Provided also, that the capital stock and other the securities, funds, and property of the said Society remaining, at the time of any claim or demand made, unapplied and undisposed of, and inapplicable to prior claims and demands, shall alone be liable to answer and make good all claims and demands upon the said Society, or otherwise, under or by virtue of this policy; and that no director, officer, or shareholder of the said Society, his or her heirs, executors, or administrators shall by reason of this policy be in anywise individually or personally liable or subject to any such claims or demands, or be in anywise charged by reason thereof, beyond the amount unpaid in respect of his or her shares for the time being, in the said capital stock of the Society, nor longer than he or she shall retain the same shares.

Given under the Hands of three of the Directors, and Sealed with the Common Seal of the said Society, this fourteenth day of March in the Year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Fifty six
