All the above described Glass is in the Assured's Premises situate as aforesaid.

In the event of a loss ALL Glass is considered PLAIN, unless the contrary is specially named on the Policy. No Lettering, Enbossing, Bending, Siloering, or any Ornamental Work is considered insured unless the same is so described. This Insurance will be nullified if any alteration is made in the foregoing specified Glass, or any alteration in the buildings, trade, or occupancy, unless notice is given to the Company of the said alterations and the assent or sanction of the Company signified by endorsement hereon. In the event of any portion of the Glass insured by this Policy being broken, the insurance on same shall cease on its replacement by the Company, and if the Assured again wishes protection, the premium on that portion of the Policy to the expiration of the then current year must be paid. Frames of any and every description stand at the risk of the Assured. Window fittings or other obstructions to replacement to be removed by the Assured. All salvage must be preserved, the same being the property of the Company. In no case will the Company be held liable for interruption or delay of business or damage of any kind during the time intervening between the occurrence of a breakage and the replacement thereof. No payment of any premium shall suffice to renew this Policy, unless the usual printed receipt under the hand of the Manager, or Agent of the Company shall be given for the same.

Now know ye that from the date of these presents, and so long as the said Assured shall pay or cause to be paid to the Company the above named annual payment at the time aforesaid, and the Directors of the said Company for the time being shall agree to accept the same, the stock and funds of the said Company shall be subject and liable to pay or to make good to the said Assured, his, her, or their executors, administrators, and assigns, all the loss which the said Assured shall suffer on or in respect of or which shall happen to the said Glass herein before mentioned and described, by or from any cause whatever, saving the exception above specified, but it shall be at the option and discretion of the Company either to pay to the Assured the value of the Glass so destroyed, less the value of the Salvage (if any) or to repair and make good with Glass of a similar quality, provided always that any claim arising under this Policy shall be made within thirty days of the date of the breakage, and further, that if the same shall arise through the act, negligence, or default, of any other than the assured, or anyone in his own employ, then at the request of the Company the Assured shall give a written guarantee that he or they will sue, prosecute, and render any such assistance as may be necessary for the recovery from the person or persons by whose default the Glass has been damaged or destroyed, all expenses attending such suit or prosecution to be borne by the Company.

In Witness whereof we, two of the Directors of the said Company, have hereunto set our hands the 14th day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty five
